NEW ATHLETIC GROUNDS

Dr. J. H. McCall Made the Boys' Feet Good.

Thanks to Dr. James H. McCall a new athletic ground has been opened, much more conveniently situated than those that have been used the last few years. This ground is situated East of Paris street, and North of College street. The baseball boys are certainly grateful to the doctor.

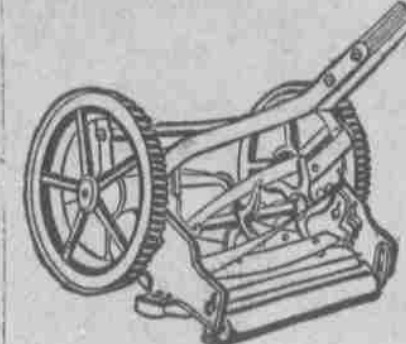

A town team has recently been organized and will play its first game on the new grounds Friday at 3:30, against Gleason. Huntingdon has had high-class baseball in the past and there is no reason why this should not be continued. Correspondence has been opened with several neighboring towns and other games will follow shortly.
